Note: All deposits must result in the issuance of whole ADSs. The ratio of Foresight ADS to Foresight Share is 1:90. The Bank of New York Mellon ("BNY") will not issue fractional ADSs and deposits resulting in fractional ADSs will be rejected by our custodians.

- All deposits must include complete delivery instructions as follows: Broker's name, broker's DTC participant number, name of Investor and account number with the broker. Our custodian will reject deposits without complete delivery instructions. Additionally, BNY will not be able to issue the ADSs without the required information.

- Upon receipt of the SWIFT confirmation of deposit from our custodian and complete delivery instructions, BNY will deliver the ADSs to the converting investor's DTC Broker, who will further credit the investor's account.

- Issuance Fees to convert Foresight Shares to ADSs are waived until January 7, 2027. Starting January 8, 2027, BNY will assess issuance fees equivalent to $5.00 per 100 ADSs delivered or a fraction thereof. Further, and unless prior special arrangements are made by the issuer with BNY, our delivery at DTC after January 7, 2027 will be on the basis of "delivery versus payment (DVP), i.e., the DTC Broker receive our delivery of ADSs and the corresponding issuance fees, otherwise, the delivery of the ADSs will fail and will not be completed. NOTE to converting shareholders: Please notify your U.S. broker (DTC Broker) in advance to accept BNY's delivery of ADSs and corresponding issuance fees, if applicable.
